

Al Conway

After Dinner Speaker

A keen football fan and golfer as an After Dinner Speaker he is as topical as today's papers. Working with people as diverse as Judge James Pickles, Cynthia Payne, Sir Richard Hadlee and many times with the late George Best.

Al is also an experienced compere or Master of Ceremonies.

Comedian

A professional comedian since 1974 with summer seasons in Blackpool, Bridlington and Skegness. Forces tours of Germany, Holland, Northern Ireland and Gibraltar.

Al appeared in the 1988 television series of "New Faces", followed by theatre work supporting The Drifters and the Three Degrees and more recently has become a regular at the Leeds City Varieties where he appears in "The Good Old Days"

Al also incorporates some clever magic and audience participation into his cabaret act, and can vary his material to suit most audiences be they in the UK, Spain, Cyprus or Corfu.

Magician

Al performed magic at Buckingham Palace during the millennium celebrations, doing both close up and cabaret. He recently entertained at the wedding of Tricia Penrose (Gina from Heartbeat).

With a casual laid back manner and quick sense of humour, he mingles easily at corporate functions and promotions performing magic with cards, ropes and newspapers.

Al is a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians.

