

BILLY BEAN

Billy Bean is a big man with a big sense of humour. Over the past 15 years, he has rapidly become a big favourite on the after dinner circuit, covering everthing from corporate events to sportsmans dinners. Billy is well respected on the the after dinner circuit for his ability to read an audience and adapt his act to suit.

Billy has appeared alongside some of the biggest names in the business. Jack Charlton, Bobby Charlton, Frank Bruno, Gary Linekar, George Best, to name but a few.

He has starred on Granada Televisions “The Comedians” and Sky’s “Stand and Deliver”. Billy’s amazing talent to make people laugh gave him the chance to travell and he has entertained in the Middle East, South Africa, Europe and the Caribbean.

Entertaining dinner guests in the Caribbean is a big jump from his earlier career as a chef and a spell as a drummer with a top comedy show band. Billy has the very rare ability to pitch his mateial just right, enableing his audience to feel immediatly as ease and comfortable in his company.

The success of his style is reflected in the many major companies he has worked for, some who request his return year after year. BT British Airways World Cargo, Harcros, Securicor, Iveco, Ford UK, Halifax PLC, National Freight Association, Courage, Alida Gibbs, Legal and General and Auto Glass UK are just a few of the companies that have enjoyed an evening of top class laughter.

Billy is also a resident comedian for Manchester United where he entertains many thousands throughout the course of the football season at Old Trafford and at European matches.

Billy is a true professional, a class act to entertain all.
