

Martin Gold

In the past five years, Martin has fine-tuned his act to the After Dinner market, able to deliver his speech without a trace of smut, or foul language. He can also tailor his act to suit the particular client if needed, and has also presented a host of corporate videos. Martin is also in demand as a TV warm up artiste, having worked on such shows as “This is Your Life”, “Stars in Their Eyes”, and more recently “This is my moment.”.

Martin is always immaculately dressed and carries a very professional attitude towards the event. He is a very amicable person both on and off stage.

Martin has enjoyed a lifetime in Television, since his days as a star of “Summertime Special” to his regular appearances on the “New Comedians” show.

Looking at Martin it seems impossible that his professional career started over twenty years ago as a stand up comedy impressionist. He quickly progressed into stand up comedy, and subsequently became a big hit with the theatre audiences.

During these years, he supported such names as Ken Dodd, Les Dawson, Gene Pitney, Tammy Wynette and many more.

Martin completed four seasons topping the bill in Jersey, three in Newquay, and several seasons headlining for Warner Holidays and Stakis Hotels.

More recently, Martin has found himself in demand by several cruise lines and

Everybody I spoke to commented on what an enjoyable evening they had had without a “Blue” word being spoken. I would definitely have no hesitation in recommending you.”

Kevin Evans, Nottinghamshire County CC.

“I am writing to you in appreciation of Martin Gold’s efforts and, in particular, congratulate him on a good clean performance. His act was well balanced without any vulgarity, swearing or smutty comments - well done and many thanks.”

DC Hill, Humberside Police.

“Top class comedy entertainment - dispatched a battery of jokes gratefully acknowledged by the audience which he had eating out of his hand almost as soon as he came on stage..”

The Stage.

Martin’s ability to deliver a corporate speech to a corporate audience makes him one of the most popular and busiest after dinner speakers on the circuit today.

Martin Gold – Recent testimonials

“I mentioned last week that I would be featuring some-one who is (in my opinion) going places. Let me introduce to you comedian Martin Gold, a Variety Club Award Winner”.

Political correctness is one luxury that comedians cannot afford because if such a subject was to be adhered to there would not be any comics about. Bearing this in mind members of the audience could not have cared less about such niceties when Martin appeared.

Professional in every respect, it was obvious from the start that Martin had not merely learnt his script and spilled forth in parrot fashion - he is ‘a natural’ and believe you me nothing is spared from his good-natured ‘verbal abuse’. Frankly, I could not fault this artiste at all, his content, delivery and stage personality were quite brilliant and I was sorry when his show came to a close.

This was the best act I have seen at this particular function and in all honesty, the best comedian I have seen anywhere in many a year. Thanks Martin, from us all.”

*“Martin had to follow me and Alec Stewart at a cricket dinner, which is obviously a bit like singing after Sinatra and Dean Martin. It was midnight before he got on, but he turned it round brilliantly and had a bunch of drunk cynical cricketers laughing their heads off. I thought his act was sharp and very funny.” Piers Morgan, former Editor, The Mirror

*“Martin judged his audience perfectly in terms of content and pace and immediately had everyone in stitches. He was the highlight of our evening and I would recommend him unreservedly.” Sally Geddes, Initial Rentokil plc

*“Everybody I spoke to commented on what an enjoyable evening they had had without a “Blue” word being spoken. I would definitely have no hesitation in recommending you.” Kevin Evans, Nottinghamshire County CC

*“It would be appreciated if you could pass on our thanks to Martin who performed at Rawdon Golf Club on Saturday night. Everybody who attended had a fantastic time and all agreed that he was one of the best performers we have had. I will certainly recommend him to other golf clubs.” Simon Lax, Chairman, Rawdon Golf Club

“A star in the making, one of the best things to happen to Jersey.”

*“Top class comedy entertainment - dispatched a battery of jokes gratefully acknowledged by the audience which he had eating out of his hand almost as soon as he came on stage..” The Stage & Television Today

*“Coming highly recommended, Martin Gold is a comedian of the highest calibre. He commands his audience whatever age and on every level within seconds of walking on stage. His razor sharp wit, not to mention his immaculate appearance leaves his audience aching for more. After booking Martin on a number of occasions, I can say without fear of contradiction that he is nothing short of “The Consummate performer.”” Chris Barnes, General Manager, Chesterfield Hotel

*“Martin was first time with us and was first class. I would like to book him again. A breath of fresh air.” Ken Sutton, Unsworth CC

*“On behalf of Pocklington RUFC I would like to thank Martin Gold for his excellent entertainment at our recent club dinner. Although I personally cannot remember a thing he said due to ‘slight over consumption’, the feedback from everyone was very complimentary.” Tim Bradshaw, Pocklington RUFC

*“On behalf of everybody I would like to thank you for entertaining us at the above event. Your contribution to the evening was the highlight, with your constant barrage of jokes and stories. Needless to say we have had nothing but praise for your professional and hilarious performance.” Andrew Gomez, Whittington Heath Golf Club Ltd.

“We held our Charity Dinner last Friday and Martin gold was our Comedian and Host. Martin was excellent and kept our evening running so smoothly, despite our being over an hour behind in sitting down to eat. Martin moved heaven And earth to get to us, following delays, transfers & problems with flights etc . and still managed to get to us before the meal started.

*Martin was very professional, confident and funny and I would like you pass on our appreciation and thanks. We will definitely consider Martin for future events.” Julie Brew, Travis Perkins Nottingham
