

Born in the North East, Seth has been a professional comedian for the past 22 years.

Starting off on talent shows, he then progressed into one half of a double act, until finally becoming a stand up comic in his own right. He worked at top cabaret venues throughout the mid seventies and eighties such as Talk Of The North, Jollees in Stoke, The Cresta in Solihull and various others before they vanished from the entertainment scene.

With a particular interest in sport, namely racing, Seth has developed his style to suit the After Dinner market, and has appeared alongside some of the greatest sporting names in history.

He has starred in summer seasons in Jersey, worked with the Armed Forces in Germany, and travelled all over the world, working to packed audiences supporting some of the biggest celebrities. He also has a wealth of experience in TV work, and has appeared in such series as Blackadder, Emmerdale, Spender, Heartbeat, and When The Boat Comes In, to name but a few.

At home in a laid back cabaret atmosphere, or the more demanding stag nights and fun pubs, Seth is capable of handling any type of situation presented to him.
